GENERAL INFORMATION

The information contained in this book, which is correct at the time of compilation, applies to commercial services operated by the company and does not necessarily relate to operations on behalf of train operators or tendering authorities.

Tickets must be retained for inspection and duplicates cannot be issued. Usually the route indicator at the front of the bus will be colour coded to match the colours shown in publications and the route number will be displayed. Most stops are marked with a London Transport bus or coach stop (usually also showing Original Tour).

Whenever possible open-top double-deck buses are used on these services although the right is reserved to substitute closed-top buses if the need should arise, especially in adverse weather conditions.

All times and routes shown may be varied in cases of severe weather conditions or if disruption occurs because of marches or processions etc. Whenever possible advance notice will be given of such occurrences but this cannot be guaranteed. Where shown the winter frequencies are those expected to apply during the period November 2009 to March 2010 inclusive but additional journeys may operate if there is sufficient demand.

Smoking is not permitted on any company vehicle.

FARES

Single fares starting from 80p are available from the driver at the commencement of the journey. All fares shown are, unless otherwise stated, adult single fares in pence. Staff passes issued by operators listed on official notices may travel free of charge provided that a seat is not occupied to the detriment of a fare-paying passenger.

Travelcards, LT Bus Passes, Saver Tickets and Oystercards are not valid for travel on Original commercial services.

In all cases where time restrictions apply availability is determined by scheduled or actual time of departure, whichever is to the benefit of the passenger.

CHILDREN'S FARES

One child aged 0-4 inclusive, per accompanying adult and not occupying any seat which is needed by a fare-paying passenger may be carried free at all times. Additional children aged 0-4 and all children aged 5-15 inclusive are conveyed at half the adult fare or reduced fare as otherwise shown. Any child aged under 16 but appearing to be older, who wishes to travel at children's rates will be expected to provide proof of age.

CONCESSIONARY FREEDOM PASSES

Holders of valid London Boroughs' Elderly, Blind and Disabled Persons' Freedom Passes are conveyed according to the conditions of the individual pass at half the adult fare per single journey on services T3, T4, T5 and T6. No concessionary fares are available on services T1, T2 or excursions. The journey must not commence between midnight and 09.29 or between 23.00 and midnight on Mondays to Fridays (no time restriction Public Holidays). No other concessionary tickets are available and passes issued by local authorities outside Greater London are not valid.

TOUR TICKETS (prices valid from 1 April 2009)

Available for unlimited travel on Original services T1, T2, T3, T4, T5 and T6 for up to 24 hours from time of issue.

Adult	£24.00
Child	£12.00

Family (Up to 5 persons, including no more than 2 adults, travelling together) £69.00

These tickets are available from: appointed agents (some of whom may not sell the full range of tickets) or on day of travel from Original Tour staff.

Tickets may be purchased in advance from Company offices and websites, discounts for such sales often being available.

EXCURSIONS

Panoramic tours of London operate at certain times in accordance with demand, offering a complete 'once-round' tour. Picking-up points include Victoria, Marble Arch, Baker Street, Piccadilly Circus, Trafalgar Square, Embankment Pier, Hyde Park Corner, Lancaster Gate, Russell Square and Wandsworth. Times and fares may be varied seasonally, details being available from Company offices.

ACCESSIBILITY

On buses displaying a blue and white wheelchair symbol at the front of the bus, one 'reference wheelchair' (maximum dimensions 4' (L) x 2'4" (W) x 4'5" (H)) may be carried in the designated space, facing forwards, using the wheel clamps fitted. On other buses the carriage of unfolded wheelchairs is not permitted. Folded wheelchairs may be carried, where space permits, in appropriate stowage areas. Assistance with boarding and alighting can usually be provided by prior arrangement. Large 'scooter' wheelchairs are not permitted on any buses.

Large print copies of timetables are available upon request. Printed summaries of the English recorded commentary are available upon request. Please contact the Help Line: (020) 8877 2108 (normal office hours).

GROUP BOOKINGS

Groups of ten or more persons travelling together on Mondays to Thursdays outside the main school holiday periods may usually obtain tour tickets at a discount if making single or limited journeys. Advance booking is usually necessary. Group Bookings Line: (020) 8877 2120.

TIMETABLE SYMBOLS

Journeys shown in italics do not operate throughout the operating period of the timetable. The symbols refer to footnotes which show days of operation.

- Stops marked in the following pages with this symbol are not official timing points. Times shown alongside are for guidance, based upon average times from the preceding official timing point.

LONDON EVENTS 2009

CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE

These Conditions may be altered without notice.

GENERAL

(I) The Original London Sightseeing Tour Ltd and London Pride Sightseeing Ltd (hereinafter in these Regulations and Conditions jointly called 'the Company') will make every effort to maintain the services shown in its timetables and will so far as is possible operate the same to the system of time in force, but reserves the right to alter, suspend, withdraw or deviate the route of any vehicle or service and alter any operating times of service without notice.

(II) The Company hereby gives notice to all persons that it does not undertake, nor by the publication of this or any timetable, handbill or notice, is it to be deemed to undertake that its buses and coaches shall operate on service at the same time set out in its timetables, or at all, or shall arrive at the time specified in the timetables, or at all. The Company further gives notice that it will not be liable or accountable for any loss, damage, hurt, inconvenience or injury arising from the failure of the vehicles to start or arrive at the time specified in the timetables, or at all, neither will it be liable in such cases in the event of delay or journey deviation or breakdown arising from any cause.

The Company does not guarantee that vehicles of any particular type or description shall be operated on its bus services, excursions and tours.

LIABILITY

(III) Tickets are issued subject to the Regulations and Conditions published in the timetables, fare tables and/or notices of the Company and of any other company or person upon whose transport system the tickets may be available.

(IV) The contract of carriage and the liability of the Company (if any) or of the company or person referred to in (III) above (if any) is limited to carriage upon its or his own transport system. The Company does not accept any responsibility for any accident which may occur to any passenger being carried on any tollbridge, ferry or other transport across water.

Neither the holder of a ticket nor any other person shall have any right of action against the Company in respect of (i) death or bodily injury to any person otherwise than while the passenger is being carried in, or entering or alighting from a stationary public service vehicle; or (ii) any other loss damage or delay to any person however caused; or (iii) any loss or misdelivery of or damage or delay to property however caused; or (iv) death or bodily injury or loss sustained while entering or leaving a public service vehicle whilst in motion.

The contract entered into the Company is limited to the carriage of passengers by road.

PAYMENT OF FARES

(V) The passenger is liable to pay for the journey the fare set out in the Company's Official Fare Tables and to pay the same to the driver or conductor whether payment is requested by the driver or conductor or not.

(VI) Passengers on paying the proper fare shall see that they receive a new ticket or tickets corresponding with the amount paid, properly issued and/or punched in the relevant section, in accordance with the conditions of issue of ticket. Tickets are not transferable from one person to another. They remain the property of the Company and must be produced for inspection and delivered up when required by any of the Company's officials. Passengers must examine their change upon receipt and report any discrepancy immediately to the driver or conductor as no claims can otherwise be entertained.

(VII) Fares are arranged in stages, and passengers boarding a public service vehicle at a point between stages will be charged as from the previous stage. Passengers alighting between stages will be charged as if travelling to the next succeeding fixed stage point.

CONDUCT OF PASSENGERS

(VIII) The passenger is carried subject to the provisions of all legislative enactment in that behalf and an extract from the Public Service Vehicles (Conduct of Drivers, Inspectors, Conductors and Passengers) Regulations 1990, and made by the Minister of Transport, as amended, is as follows:

- 6 (f) When a public service vehicle is carrying passengers or waiting to pick up passengers, no passenger or intending passenger shall -
- (a) where the vehicle has a door which passengers are by notice informed is for a particular purpose, use that door for any other purpose, unless otherwise directed or authorised by a driver, inspector or conductor;
 - (b) put at risk or unreasonably impede or cause discomfort to any person travelling on or entering or leaving the vehicle, or a driver, inspector, conductor or employee of the operator when doing his work on the vehicle;
 - (c) throw or trail any article from the vehicle;
 - (d) smoke or carry lighted tobacco or light a match or a cigarette lighter in or on any part of the vehicle;
 - (e) except with the permission of the operator, distribute any paper or other article for the purpose of giving or seeking information about or comment upon any matter.
 - (f) except with the permission of the operator, sell or offer for sale any article;
 - (g) speak to the driver whilst the vehicle is in motion except -
 - (i) in an emergency;
 - (ii) for reasons of safety; or
 - (iii) to give directions as to the stopping of the vehicle;
 - (h) without reasonable cause distract the driver's attention, obstruct his vision or give any signal which might reasonably be interpreted by the driver as a signal -
 - (i) to stop the vehicle in an emergency; or
 - (ii) to start the vehicle;
 - (j) travel on any part of the vehicle which is not provided for the carriage of passengers;
 - (k) remain on the vehicle, when directed to leave by the driver, inspector or conductor on the following grounds -
 - (i) that his remaining would result in the number of passengers exceeding the maximum seating capacity or the maximum standing capacity marked on the vehicle in accordance with the Public Service Vehicle (Carrying Capacity) Regulations 1984;
 - (ii) that he has been causing a nuisance; or
 - (iii) that his condition is such as would be likely to cause offence to a reasonable passenger or that the condition of his clothing is such that his remaining would be reasonably expected to soil the fittings of the vehicle or the clothing of other passengers.

- (l) play or operate any musical instrument or sound producing equipment to the annoyance of any person on the vehicle or in a manner which is likely to cause annoyance to any person on the vehicle; or
 - (m) intentionally interfere with any equipment with which the vehicle is fitted.
- (1A) Paragraphs (1)(k)(ii) and (iii) shall not apply to a direction given by a driver, inspector or conductor solely on the grounds that a person is a disabled person.
- (2) Subject to paragraph (3), a passenger on a vehicle who has with him any articles or substance mentioned in paragraph (4) or any animal -
- (a) if directed by the driver, inspector or conductor to put it in a particular place on the vehicle, shall put it where directed; and
 - (b) if requested to move it from the vehicle by the driver, inspector or conductor, shall remove it.
- (3) Paragraph (2)(b) does not require the removal of an animal where the passenger is a disabled person and the animal is an assistance dog, a guide dog or a hearing dog.
- (3A) Without prejudice to regulation 5(7), a disabled person shall comply with any direction given by a driver, inspector or conductor to remove his assistance dog, guide dog or hearing dog from the gangway.
- (4) The article or substance referred to in paragraph (2) is -
- (a) any bulky or cumbersome article;
 - (b) any article or substance which causes or is likely to cause annoyance to any person on the vehicle; or
 - (c) any article or substance which would be reasonably expected to constitute-
 - (i) a risk of injury to any person on the vehicle; or
 - (ii) a risk of damage to the property of any person on the vehicle or to the vehicle.
- 7 (1) No passenger on a vehicle being used for the carriage of passengers at separate fares shall use any ticket which has -
- (a) been altered or defaced;
 - (b) been issued for use by another person on terms that it is not transferable; or
 - (c) expired
- (2) Save as provided in paragraph (3), every passenger on a vehicle being used for the carriage of passengers at separate fares shall -
- (a) declare, if so requested by the driver, inspector or conductor, the journey which he intends to take, is taking or has taken in the vehicle;
 - (b) where the vehicle is being operated by the driver without a conductor -
 - (i) save as provide in (ii) below, immediately on boarding the vehicle, pay the fare for the journey he intends to take to the driver or, where appropriate, by inserting in any fare-collection equipment provided on the vehicle the money or token required to pay that fare; or
 - (ii) if otherwise directed by the driver, an inspector or a notice displayed on the vehicle, shall pay the fare for his journey in accordance with the direction;
 - (c) where the vehicle is being operated by the driver with a conductor, pay the fare for the journey which he intends to take, is taking, or has taken in the vehicle to the conductor immediately on being requested to do so by the conductor or an inspector;
 - (d) accept and retain for the rest of his journey any ticket which is provided on payment of a fare in accordance with sub-paragraph (b) or (c);
 - (e) produce during his journey any ticket which has been issued to him either under sub-paragraph (d) or before he started his journey for inspection by the driver, inspector or conductor on being requested to do so by the driver, inspector or conductor; and
 - (f) as soon as he has completed the journey for which he has a ticket, either -
 - (i) leave the vehicle; or
 - (ii) pay the fare for any further journey which he intends to take on the vehicle
- (3) Paragraphs (2)(b) and (c) do not apply to a passenger who has with him a ticket which was issued to him before his journey in respect of that journey, provided he complies with all such directions in relation to the ticket as may be -
- (a) printed on the ticket;
 - (b) displayed on the vehicle; or
 - (c) given by the driver, inspector or conductor
- (4) Any passenger who -
- (a) fails to comply with paragraph 2(b) or (c); or
 - (b) does not have with him a ticket which was issued to him before his journey in respect of that journey; shall pay the fare for the journey to the driver, inspector or conductor on request and in any case before he leaves the vehicle, unless otherwise agreed by the driver, inspector or conductor.
- (5) Any passenger on a vehicle being used for the carriage of passengers at separate fares who has with him a ticket which he is not entitled to retain for any reason including -
- (a) the alteration or defacement of the ticket;
 - (b) the fact that the ticket, having been issued for the use by another person, was not transferable to him;
 - (c) the expiry of the ticket; or
 - (d) a mistake in consequence of which the ticket was issued;
- shall surrender the ticket to a driver, inspector or conductor on being required to do so.
- 8 (1) Any passenger on a vehicle who is reasonably suspected by the driver, inspector or conductor of the vehicle of contravening any provision of these Regulations shall give his name and address to the driver, inspector or conductor on demand.
- (2) ANY PASSENGER ON A VEHICLE WHO CONTRAVENES ANY PROVISIONS OF THESE REGULATIONS MAY BE REMOVED FROM THE VEHICLE BY THE DRIVER, INSPECTOR OR CONDUCTOR OF THE VEHICLE OR, ON THE REQUEST OF THE DRIVER, INSPECTOR OR CONDUCTOR BY A POLICE CONSTABLE.

STANDING PASSENGERS

(IX) The passenger is further carried subject to the provisions of The Public Service Vehicles (Carrying capacity) Regulations 1984, as amended, which provide, inter alia, that no standing passengers will be carried: (a) on the upper deck of a double-decked vehicle; (b) on the platform or staircase of a double-decked vehicle or on the steps of a single-decked vehicle (c) standing against the emergency exit or doors; (d) forward of the driver's seat.

The maximum number of standing passengers which may be carried is displayed on the vehicle.

Passengers are carried standing at the absolute discretion of the Company whose decision and that of its employees is final.

WHEELCHAIRS, PUSHCHAIRS ETC.. ON DISABLED ACCESS BUSES

(X) Wheelchair users have priority over everyone else for use of the designated wheelchair space except when standing passengers or unfolded pushchairs already occupying that space cannot be accommodated elsewhere on the vehicle. No-one already on board will be expected to alight for the sole purpose of vacating the wheelchair space, but unfolded pushchairs, buggies etc should be folded and stowed in a luggage space if there is sufficient room and the wheelchair space is needed by a wheelchair user.

BOARDING, ALIGHTING AND STOPPING PLACES

(XI) Passengers wishing to board at Request stops should hail the driver by means of a clear hand signal when the vehicle is approaching.

Passengers wishing to enter a bus must first allow those passengers who wish to alight to leave the vehicle.

Bells are provided for use by passengers wishing to alight.

Passengers are not to attempt to board or alight from any of the Company's vehicles whilst in motion or stationary in traffic in obedience to signals, police directions or from any other cause, passengers so doing act at their own risk.

REFUNDS

(XII) No refunds will be made in respect of lost, destroyed or defaced tickets of any description.

PASSENGERS' ACCOMPANIED PACKAGES AND LUGGAGE

(XIII) Luggage will be conveyed at owner's risk and the Company will not be liable for loss of or from or for damage or delay to accompanied luggage, however caused, whether by the act or neglect of the Company its services or agents or not.

The Company reserves the right to refuse to carry any luggage, parcel or package.

Light luggage or parcels which can be carried on the passenger's lap or placed on interior luggage racks without inconvenience to others will be carried free. Other large and bulky articles accompanying passengers will be carried only if accommodation permits without causing discomfort or inconvenience to the other passengers, or without obstruction of the driver or conductor in their duties. Luggage may not be placed in gangways that may obstruct any entrance or exit. Roller skates/blades, skateboards etc. are not permitted on board other than when stowed in interior luggage racks. Bicycles and perambulators will not be carried on bus services.

Explosives or combustible materials may not be brought on to the Company's public service vehicles and will not be conveyed in any circumstances whatsoever.

LOST PROPERTY

(XIV) The passenger is carried also subject to the Provisions of the Public Service Vehicle (Lost Property) Regulations 1978 as amended by the PSV (Lost Property) (Amendment) Regulations 1995 a short summary of which follows:-

Any person who finds property accidentally left in a vehicle shall immediately hand it in the state in which he finds it to the conductor ('conductor' includes driver where no conductor is carried on the vehicle), who shall deal with it in accordance with the Regulations.

All articles found on the Company's vehicles will be deposited at the Company's Head Office where enquiries should be made. Assistance in tracing will be rendered by the Company officials wherever possible.

Any such property which before it has been deposited is claimed by a person who satisfies the conductor or other duly authorised servant of the Company that he is the owner, will be returned forthwith to the claimant without fee or reward, upon giving his name and address to such conductor or other authorised servant.

If any property so retained by the Company or their representatives appears to him to be of a perishable nature, and it is not claimed within 48 (or earlier if it becomes objectionable) hours from time when it was found, he may thereupon destroy or otherwise dispose of it as he sees fit.

Under the provisions of the above Statutory Regulations the Company may charge claimants of lost property a fee of up to £2, plus advance payment for postage & packing if applicable.

Any property unclaimed within one calendar month will be disposed of in accordance with the Statutory Regulations.

All postal enquiries regarding lost property should be accompanied by a stamped addressed envelope and sent to the Company's Office, and full particulars must be given of the date and time of the journey made and on which the property was lost.

LEGAL ACTION

(XV) In the event of legal action being taken then the matter will be settled under the law of England.
